

KEPERRA SANCTUARY QLD

IOOF's Keperra Sanctuary provides ageing in place in a staged care facility in suburban Brisbane.

The project was developed in stages, with the first three stages delivering 110 units designed around four configurations, a large community centre with associated recreational and sporting facilities and extensive landscaping.

Later stages introduced a 43-bed hostel, a communal dining room and additional leisure amenities.

